BROGANS TRAIL

0.40-mile loop TRAIL RATING: Moderate
ESTIMATED HIKING TIME: 20 minutes

Brogans Trail is named after the footwear commonly worn by Civil War soldiers. The trail is relatively flat for a healthy short exercise hike. Built in 2010, the trail makes use of an area of the historic site that has been touched by mining as well as a forested area along the East Branch of Knob Creek.

While the surface of the trail is hard surface asphalt, occasionally, due to weather, mud and dirt may be present. Some of the trail is also subject to flooding as it is in the natural flood plain of Knob Creek. Low-hanging vegetation may at times also present an obstacle.
